Cancelled
P.4727 dt 21/1 declaring 21st as a Public holiday

To day has been declared a holiday under the Neg. Instr. Reg.

The 1910 Fort St George Gazette shows that only the day of the Funeral was declared as a holiday under the Neg Instr. Act.

(in connection with the demise of King Edward VIII)

It does not appear to be necessary to declare any other day as a holiday. As regards the funeral date, the announcement of the fast in India may be awaited. The C & M Gr only to day has been declared a holiday & not to-morrow
